

Uses of Ordinal numbers

Date

We use ordinal numbers when giving a date

- My friend birthday is on _____
- New year is celebrated on ____st of January
- _____nd of March is a sun day
- Neil Armstrong is died on _____th of August

Centuries

We use ordinal numbers to express the century that something happened

- Shakespeare was born in the _____ century
- We are living in _____ century
- India is Independence on middle of twentieth century

Floors

We use ordinal numbers to express the number of a floor in a building.

- Our office is on the _____th floor
- My sister apartment is on the 21st floor

Celebration

We use ordinal numbers when we want to say the total number of years we are celebrating.

- My parents _____th wedding anniversary celebrated on last Monday.
- Coming Friday is my brother's 33rd birthday.

Sequence/order

We use ordinal numbers when we want to show the order or position of something in a sequence

- Neil Armstrong is _____ man on the moon
- Our Indian hockey team got a _____ prize
- Donald Trump is the forty fifth president of U.S
- Holy see is a one hundred and ninety fifth country in the world

